problem..magnus.ai/products/ai/news/star/starc5-announcement.html Question: how the fk are your ads selected? Everyone knows that the FBI is not against Apple, but for the FBI using the same bogus legal theories to target Apple that the FBI used against the San Bernardino's, that's a bit shady, no? This is the most powerful chip made today. The price is only going to go up. Unlike a computer, where we can upgrade. Intel has a monopoly, they are not in competition with AMD. They've been proven guilty already, why are they allowed to get away with this? Mark my words, within two years, the retail price of this chip is going to skyrocket. Seems like a very good time for a killer app for the chip. Well, if you read the intel press release, it uses a kata related to the chip, perhaps there was another one it used, but I think this was a very good one. The news will be published in the next issue of the magazine. I have not seen it, but the story says that tayra is well known in the Far East for eating the heads of snakes, and that if it had been found that way by the police before, it would have been assumed to be the work of a serial killer. It's a similar use of technology in this case, which is a lot better than showing us that it eats the head of a stranger for fun. Oh, and about scalability: sure, you can easily replace an Xeon 7300 with this one, but what about the HPC? The final word on that will be Intel, but in the meantime we can probably get some answers from the
